

Administrator of the Year Award

Each year, WSCA presents an award to an administrator who has provided outstanding support to the counseling profession. The next Administrator of the Year award will be presented on Thursday, June 6, 2024, at noon, at the Spring General Meeting and Annual Awards Luncheon at View Restaurant in Oakdale.

At this luncheon, our association publicly recognizes the crucial role that administrators have in helping us to provide excellent services to students.

Any member of WSCA may submit a nomination for the award. Nominations should be in the form of a letter that includes the following:

- name and institutional affiliation of the nominee
- a description of the nominee's outstanding qualities
- specific examples of the nominee's support of critical counseling programs and guidance department activities
- professional and civic activities of the nominee

Please note that all nominations must be received no later than May 22, 2024, and that all nominees must attend the Annual Awards Luncheon on Thursday, June 6, 2024.

You may send nominations via Google Form by clicking here or mail to:
