

Seminars

The following seminars will be presented for parents and students during

Spring College Fair

Monday, April 16, 2018

Introduction to the College Search Process – 5:45 PM

This workshop will discuss when and how to begin your college search; how to select the appropriate high school courses and sequences for the next few years so you will be prepared to apply to the college of your choice. Presenter: Ken Grotell, Farmingdale State College – SUNY

Financial Aid – An Insider’s View – 6:15 PM and 7:15 PM

This workshop will discuss the various types of Financial Aid available to college students — scholarships, federal grants, loans, work study programs; how financial need is fulfilled through a “financial aid package;” and how to complete the Financial Aid Form (FAFSA).

Presenter: Gordon Rowe, St. Joseph’s College

Athletic Scholarships and NCAA Qualifications – 6:30 PM

Learn about National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) regulations and how they pertain to the high school student athlete.

Explore the many athletic scholarships available at local and national colleges.

Presenter: Christi Abbate, Basketball Advantage

Historically Black Colleges and Universities – 7:00 PM

The almost 90 historically black colleges and universities in the United States offer a quality education as well as a nurturing environment. Successful graduates of these institutions are well-known leaders in government, arts, music, theater and science. This workshop will take students on a tour of the historically black colleges and universities and examine their many interesting aspects.

Presenter: William Mills, Alpha Phi Alpha

Colleges for Students with Learning Disabilities – 7:15 PM

This will be an interesting workshop for parents and students as they examine the requirements and various types of programs and services available to students with learning disabilities at colleges and career schools throughout the United States.

Presenter: Daniel Kalina, Educational Consultant

Please look for posters announcing location of seminar rooms.